Adult Psychoanalytic Training Program

Course Curriculum

FIRST YEAR

- The Early Development of Psychic Process and Mental Structure (I)
- The Early Development of Psychic Process and Mental Structure (II)
- The Oedipal Period
- Latency and Adolescence
- Freud I: 1893-1900
- Freud II: 1905-1919
- Freud III: 1919-1927
- Freud IV: 1927-1940

SECOND YEAR

- Contemporary Freudian Psychoanalytic Theory (I)
- Contemporary Freudian Psychoanalytic Theory (II)
- Psychoanalytic Diagnosis (I)
- Psychoanalytic Diagnosis (II)
- Contemporary Structural Approaches to Technique (I)
- Contemporary Structural Approaches to Technique (II)
- Case Seminar: Developing Psychoanalytic Process (I)
- Case Seminar: Developing Psychoanalytic Process (II)

Beyond the second year, there will be additional eight-week courses that candidates will take. These courses may be taken in any order or sequence and at a time frame suitable to the individual. While the courses below may be completed in a two-year span of time, candidates are free to complete their coursework in tandem with their clinical work.

BEYOND THE SECOND YEAR

- Klein and the Neo-Kleinians (I)

- Klein and the Neo-Kleinians (II)

- Rotating Case Seminar: Transference and Countertransference / the Borderline Patient

- Rotating Case Seminar: Gender Issues

- Winnicott and the Independent Group (I)

- Winnicott and the Independent Group (II)

- Continuous Case Seminar: The Dream in Psychoanalysis*

- Contemporary Integrative Approaches to Technique (I)*

- Contemporary Integrative Approaches to Technique (II)*

- Continuous Case Seminar: Classical and Non-Classical Dynamics (I)*

A 410 • Continuous Case Seminar: Classical and Non-Classical Dynamics (II)*

A 309 • Rotating Case Seminar: Non-Interpretive Mutative Factors

Courses marked with an asterisk (*) are only open to candidates with an approved control case. On occasions, when a candidate is working with a Fellow on developing a control case, permission might be granted to take a * course. Candidates may request this of the Registrar.